Hospital advices are that Mrs. Wright, one of the leading Sierra Madre citizens, is recovering nicely.

TOYON RD. SUBDIVIDING FOUGHT

PC Meet Certain To Be Hectic

Heads of 20 families occupying comfortable and substantial homes in the Toyon Rd. section of the old Lewis property in Sierra Madre will storm into the City Planning Commission meeting Thursday night in City Hall Council Chambers. They will vigorously protest application of the plan of the Prescott Building Company, 3827 E. Colorado, Pasadena, to subdivide a large section of the wooded area into 21 building lots.

Opposition to the proposed subdivision has been growing for weeks and has been organized under the leadership of John A. Sielin of 325 Toyon Rd. Principally, the objections are:

1: Contour of the land will require heavy cuts and fills as deep as 15 to 17 feet.

2: Neighbors are concerned seriously with any increase in runoff, as well as the sewage problem which they believe certain because of the cuts and fills.

3: They feel the subdividing as planned, will affect the stability of their properties.

THE PROPOSED size of the lots, some estimated at 30 by 70 feet, also is a factor, residents contending that homes erected on such sized plots will prove undesirable in the area, affecting the values of their own properties.

The tract ,one of the last few undivided plots in Sierra Madre, is heavily wooded.

The hearing starts at 8 o'clock.

25th Anniversary

VFW Laud Ten of Its Ex-Chiefs

As anticipated, the Silver Anniversary dinner-dance of Harry L. Embree Post 3208, Veterans of Foreign Wars, last Saturday night at Post Headquarters, 40 E. Montecito, proved to be an outstanding noteworthy social—and historical—event in Sierra Madre annals, crowded as it has been with worthwhile occasions.

Significant was the attendance of ten past commanders, Louis La Lone, Bud Marsh, Eugene Gilbert, Roy Davis, E. J. Everett, William Schwartz, Louie Van Iersel, Robert Schmitt, Jack Ort, and Arthur Embree.

Equally outstanding was presentation of the VFW 25-year pin to Past Commander Arthur Embree and display of a framed photograph of Louie Van Iersel, wearing his Congressional Medal of Honor, one of the few awarded in any war in which the United States has participated.

The picture has been hung in the post hallway next to that of Harry L. Embree, post founder.

COMMANDER B. Grover Hudson and Mrs. Mrs. Dottie Underwood, chairman of the arrangements committee provided a many faceted entertainment including dancing to the music of Gregg Paulsen's quartet, a superb full course rib roast beef dinner, songs by Past Commander Schmitt, a handsomely decorated ballroom and entertainment by the Bulging Belles — Mesdames Merte Waite, Jane Buchan and Barbara Dunnagan, plus the male efforts of Jimmie Vernon, junior vice com-

The cards will be used later in the year and each entrant was cautioned to retain the card for future use.

Sierra Madre Man Wins 1 Million Blue Chip Stamps

William W. Maloney of 32 S. Sunnyside, Sierra Madre, is in the "Blue Chips" — beg pardon, Blue Chip Stamps, these February days.

Mr. Maloney, engineer and father of three children, and Mrs. Maloney this week received word that he had won one million (you count 'em) Blue Chip stamps in the recent contest conducted by that organization.

What's he going to do with all of those stamps?

Just what everybody else would do who might be that fortunate — the Maloneys will use them to obtain every possible premium the stamp people offer.

Just the same—that's a whale of a lot of stamps.

Now We Have Brush and Tree Chip Saturdays

Now we have Brush and Tree Chip Saturdays in Sierra Madre.

The boys at City Hall remark that though it's only February, there's a feeling of spring permeating the air. All of which brings us to the prosaic subject of fertilizer.

Things like roses, snapdragons, tulips, narcissus, hyacinths and such will soon be blooming. So they've set up a brush and tree chip depository at City Water Yard —it's excellent fertilizer, you know.

Tom Butch, assistant city administrator, says any citizen can obtain this valuable fertilizer Saturdays by going to the City Water Yard—the city will even help load it in your trucks, boxes or baskets.

So, anybody for brush and tree chips—on Saturdays?

Installation Dinner Of C. of C. On Monday

The installation dinner of the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce next Monday night at the Woman's Clubhouse promises to be a noteworthy event in the business and civic annals of this city.

The has been an upsurge lately in business and building in Sierra Madre. For instance, building permits for January totaled $335,087, compared with $125,715 for the corresponding period in 1959.

Furthermore, there are several building projects under way or being formulated which will certainly make 1960 a top year in construction hereabouts.

ALL THIS, plus unexcelled recreational facilities, many of them arranged by David A. Sommers, city recreational director; the C. of C.-sponsored Sierra Madre Day at Santa Anita; the Kiwanis Club's "King of the Crop" and "Queen of the Crop" Contest, the Lion's Club Pioneer Days, bigger and better than ever; the Kiwanis annual June Breakfast, the Little League and Babe Ruth baseball seasons and other civic affairs bid fair to make this a more than ordinary years for this "Foothill City of Livability."

Spearheading the C. of C. activities is the newly elected president ,John H. Curtis who will be formally inducted Monday night. Others to be installed are:

Larry C. Lomax, administrator of Sierra Madre Hospital, as vice president; David L. Roess, market proprietor, as treasurer, and Anthony Cavalli as secretary.

Robert H. Green, Sierra Madre manager for the Edison Co., is general chairman of the dinner committee. Ralph Hurwit will outline promotion campaigns which the Merchants Group will undertake this year.

A SPECIAL.. musical program will be provided by W. Alden Webster and his group of three girls, all in costume.

Tickets may be obtained at the Chamber of Commerce offices, 64 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., from Bob Green, at his office, 40 N. Baldwin, the various C. of C. members and at the Sierra Madre News offices, 9 Kersting Ct.

Broken Vertebrae Doesn't Deter Boy

It takes more than a tumble and a broken vertebrae to sideline Patrick J. Tyler, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Tyler of 223 San Gabriel Ct., Sierra Madre.

Young Tyler suffered the injury when he fell from the rings in the John Marshall High School Gymnasium in Pasadena a week ago last Thursday.

Hurried to St. Luke's Hospital, he was placed in a cast. In a few days, however, he was home and getting around in the family car, although he will have to wear the cast for some time.

Small Boys Admit They Fired Garage

Sierra Madre has two juvenile firebugs.

Two youngsters, 8 and 9 years old, admitted to police, according to Chief Gordon G. McMillan that they set fire to a garage and workshop at the rear of the K. I. Snorteland home, 289 San Gabriel Ct., which was practically destroyed by fire Monday morning. Fire Chief C. E. Brown estimated the loss at $500.

Skiis and a quantity of tools were lost in the fire fought with two hose lines by the Sierra Madre firemen, who made a fast run to the scene and whose prompt action prevented the flames from spreading.

CHIEF McMILLAN says the two boys who must appear before juvenile authorities, said they first entered the garage one day last week, scattering paint out its edges. Monday morning, en route to school, they again entered the garage, this time applying a lighted match to the inflammable paint.

The police and fire chiefs both considered the fire incendiary.

Women's Baseball Group Will Meet Next Wednesday

The newly organized Women's Auxiliary of the Sierra Madre Baseball Association will hold its second meeting on Tuesday ,Feb. 23, 8 p.m. in the Park House.

Main purpose of the Auxiliary is to help the boys earn a part of this money, to encourage good sportsman ship, and generally get behind the boys and boost their morale.

All mothers who are interested in baseball are urged to join with this group to help the boys finance their Little League and Babe Ruth League Baseball Teams.

Come, share in fun, and join the boys of Sierra Madre in the great American game of baseball.

Four Youths Detained in Home Thefts

Charged with burglary during a fraternity and sorority party at the home of Miss Kay Barry of 380 E. Laurel, Sierra Madre, four youths, Police Chief Gordon G. McMillan reports, will face Municipal Court in Pasadena, Friday. Two of the young men are said to be students. Miss Barry is the daughter of Mr .and Mrs. James Barry.

The four are described on the police blotter as James W. Kennelly, 20, of Pasadena; Paul H. Messinie, 19, of San Gabriel; Richard S. Barrett, 18, of San Marino, and David D. Sutherland, 18, also of San Marino.

Miss Barry, a PCC student, was entertaining a party of young women and young men at the home of her parents when, it is charged, the four accused youths managed entry into the home and made off with $10 from the purse of Linda Cleworth, an electric shaver owned by Mr. Barry, and $1.20 in change taken from the receptacle in which young Jimmy Barry keeps his savings.

THE PARTY broke up soon after this and as they began to leave the girls discovered the fact that Miss Cle-

Washington's Wisdom

The degree of patience and tolerance as well as perceptive wisdom ranking supermost in the quality and achievements of their leadership has been an outstanding characteristic of our leaders who have left an indelible and imperishable imprint on American history. Such a man was Lincoln, and before him George Washington.

A perusal of Dr. Douglas Freeman's seven-volume history of George Washington clearly indicates that he had neither the eloquence of Patrick Henry, the philosophical perception of Thomas Jefferson, nor the legal style of John Adams. But under the crushing burdens of a nearly impossible war, and an adventure into politics as our first President, the Virginian, through the eventful years, grew immeasurably in stature, in integrity, with a vast fund of common sense, and most of all, in the humbleness requisite for the greatness which he achieved.

The result is that never have his countrymen lowered him in their esteem. For us the succeeding generations, as well as his own, he gave Americans a lot of sound advice still applicable on this anniversary of his birth (Feb. 22).

* * *

CONCERNING TAXES, he said:

"As a very important source of strength and security, cherish public credit. One method of preserving it is to use it as sparingly as possible, involving occasions of expense by cultivating peace but remembering also that timely disbursements to prepare for danger frequently prevent much greater disbursements to repel it; avoiding likewise the accumulation of debt not only by shunning occasions of expense, but by vigorous exertions in time of peace to discharge the debts which unavoidable wars may have occasioned, but ungenerously throwing upon posterity the burdens which we ourselves ought to bear.

"The executions of these maxims belongs to your representatives, but it is necessary that public opinion should cooperate. To facilitate to them the performance of their duty it is essential that you should practically bear in mind that toward the payment of debts there must be revenue, that to have revenue there must be taxes, and that no taxes can be devised which are not more or less inconvenient and unpleasant."—Sept. 19, 1796.

ON BIPARTISANSHIP:

Washington was rather firm in his ideas about keeping people in government, or letting them go on the grounds of their political belief. Said he:

"I shall not, whilst I have the honor to administer the government, bring a man knowingly into my office whose political tenets are adverse to the measures which the general government are pursuing, for this, in my opinion, would be sort of political suicide."—Sept. 27, 1795.

* * *

ON IMMIGRATION:

Having suggested that "pacific and industrious characters and men of wealth" were desirable as immigrants, Washington was inclined to be choosey about the people who should settle in this country from abroad. He said:

"My opinion, with respect to immigration is that except for useful mechanics and some particular descriptions of men or professions, there is no need of encouragement; while the policy or advantage of having its taking place in a body (I mean the settling of them in a body) may be questioned, for by so doing they retain their language, habits and principles (good or bad) which they bring with them. Whereas by intermixture with our people they, or their descendants, get assimilated to our customs, measures and laws; in a word become one people."—Nov. 15, 1795.

* * *

ON PREPAREDNESS, he said:

"There is nothing likely to produce peace as to be well prepared to meet the enemy."—Jan. 29, 1780.

* * *

ON THE DIVISION of powers in government, he said:

"It is more important that the habits of thinking in a free country should inspire caution in those intrusted with its administration, to confine themselves within their respective constitutional spheres, avoiding the exercise of the powers of one department to encroach upon another. The spirit of encroachment tends to consolidate the powers of all the departments into one, and thus to create, whatever the form of government, a real despotism."

Here was a leader of consummate honesty and of complete faith, a man who led his fellow countrymen in the creating of a new form of government, one constituted by the people and under which freedom of man and the rights of the individual have reached its highest pinnacle. He remains the First Great American, one whose precepts we had best remember.

An insistently stubborn, stalwart man, one who gained wisdom constantly through the years, this condimented with patience and tolerance, he remains ever enshrined in the hearts of his countrymen.

Youth on the Upsurge

There is a season of youth on the upsurge in Sierra Madre, youth striding forward, beneficially for themselves and others, which bodes well for the future of this "Foothill City of Livability."

Today, there are complaints aplenty that too many American young folk indulge only vicariously in healthful outdoor activities—that they are content to sit on their TV stools watching emotional but not physical-incented stories of blood and thunder, the meanwhile creating false (pseudo heroes) in their formative minds.

Or that they are content to sit supinely in the cars loaned or given them by too-indulgent parents, confining their physical activities to a thrust of a foot on the pedals, the flicker of the hand on the other controls or a wave of the hand to boy and girl passersby.

SIERRA MADRE youngsters are fortunate in having the Minor League, Little League and Babe Ruth Baseball Leagues as an outlet for their energies. They have the newly organized Youth Coordinating Council to engross their attention. Now, in addition, we have the Kiwanis Club's "King of the Crops" and "Queen of the Crops" contest which bids fair to enjoy the attention—and energies—of several hundred school children in this community.

Couple these activities with the swimming during the summer at Sierra Vista Park, tennis for both young and old at City Park, and it looks as if we have small need to criticize any vicariousness in the activities of our Sierra Madre young people.

All this helps to kick juvenile delinquency into the ash can of the body politic.

U.S. Chamber of Commerce Slips a Cog

By Robert G. Spivack

WASHINGTON

LOOK WHO'S spreading Democratic propaganda! — You would not expect the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, even in its most relaxed moments, to do anything to help elect a Democrat the next president of the United States. But I have recently received a memo in the mail that makes me think the men who run the U.S. C. of C. do not fully understand implications of all their comments. Either that, or they just don't care what happens next November.

What follows are direct quotes from a Chamber of Commerce publication known as "Business News Features," issued No. 152:

"The American dollar is worth less today than at any time in history; less than when the Constitution was adopted.

"In this 20th Century, within the lifetime of many persons still working, the purchasing power of the dollar has dropped from 100 cents to less than 29 cents. The value of savings and pensions and insurance has dropped accordingly."

* * *

AFTER a brief dissertation on the effects of inflation, the Chamber of Commerce publication continues:

"The chief cause of inflation is not hard to identify . . . It is excessive deficit spending by the Federal government."

It then recommends a legislative program that is more in keeping with the traditional Chamber of Commerce point of view, that is, it opposed "unnecessary spending" for public works, depressed areas, community facilities, veterans' benefits and airport construction.

There is not much doubt that each Democratic candidate will quote the Chamber of Commerce publication until its words are memorized by every child in school. They will naturally ask Vice President Richard M. Nixon, as head of the president's anti-inflation committee, what he has done to curb the rising cost of living? If Nixon is inclined to say to the Chamber of Commerce "Et tu Brute?" can anyone blame him?

* * *

DOUBLE-TALK and double-think—Any Newspaperman who has covered this capital for any length of time is used to hypocrisy, two-faced politicians and the old stab-in-the-back.

But I think William Pollock, the general president of the Textile Workers Union of America (AFL-CIO), has come across a classic example of phoniness in the textile industry which deserves some public attention.

As many persons know our textile manufacturers have been howling to high heaven about the problems they have faced since Japanese and some European textiles have been imported into this country, at a fraction of American costs.

The claim that they cannot meet foreign competition has seemed so genuine many otherwise internationally-minded government officials have listened sympathetically to their cries for higher tariffs to keep out cheap foreign goods.

* * *

NOW, according to Pollock, the extile industry itself is buying large quantities of raw and semi-finished materials from abroad. They are also buying cheap machinery from abroad to the detriment of domestic textile machinery manufacturers.

Pollock summed the situation up rather aptly:

"They can't have it both ways and expect the nation to take their appeals for aid seriously.

"We are for regulated imports but ,in the eyes of the public, the textile industry will not be entitled to them if its concern is strictly for its own products and reflects no consideration for the products of other industries."

In other words, how short-sighted can businessmen be?

Lee Shippey asks What Do You Think?

It saddens me to hear that the Lewis estate on Toyon Rd. may become a subdivision.

I had cherished a nebulous hope that eventually it might become a sort of park which would be a bright memorial to Rollins and Grace Lewis, two outstandingly good citizens who were among the best neighbors we ever had.

The Lewises loved that place, preserving it much as nature made it except in the area immediately about their charming home, from which the view was both magnificent and lovable.

Roll Lewis used to love to work himself into an honest sweat in beautifying the grounds without destroying their natural beauty, and seemed to find such work a pleasant change from banking.

And all of us who lived near have pleasant memories of the generosity, the noblesse oblige and yet the unassuming simplicity with which the Lewises lived there.

* * *

WE SHIPPEYS were the first residents to own property on Toyon Rd. Then all lots had to have a minimum frontage of 100 feet and at one time we owned 225 feet. We were the first to sell off a 75-foot lot and later a second 75 feet because the place had grown too big for us and we needed money for other things.

So there can be no criticism in our sadness now. We're merely sorry to see an area which was our children's wonderland when we were the only residents on Toyon Rd., and of which our affectionate memories continue, completely lose its identity. We can only hope that if it is subdivided it will be a choice and spacious subdivision, not one of those back-to-back subdivisions.

I HEARD of a really considerate surgical specialist the other day. He has two tranquilizer pills included with every bill he sends out.

* * *

IT IS REPORTED that it costs Uncle Sam $1,500,000 a day to buy and store price-supported farm surpluses nobody wants, that other "farmers" are paid vast sums for not producing anything under the soil-conservation program and that one California farm company was paid $1,700,000 last year for either overproducing or not producing, or both.

That surely is protecting the small farmer. This situation has been growing worse for years, yet no one in politics seems wise enough or brave enough to offer an acceptable solution.

Sec. of Agriculture Ira Benson has made an honest effort ,with the result that he is being hurriedly eased out of the cabinet.

The President's message on the farm problem last week offered no real solution and seemed more an effort to shift the problem to other shoulders than an effort at real solution—and Mr. Nixon is credited—if that's the right word—with prevailing on Ike to tone it down.

* * *

IF UNCLE SAM would only pay people for not letting their brains produce, as he does "farmers" for not letting their lands produce, a lot of persons now in Congress would be millionaires.

Pool's East Side To Have New Turf

Last week the Sierra Madre Parks crew completed sowing seed on the east side of the swim pool. Grass is now peeking through the ground.

By the summer it is hoped that more picnic benches can be purchased and that some of the land west of the Nursery School can be developed for picnic purposes.

Around the Square

By Tommy-Ann Miller

Our town, cloaked in dazzling weather lately, could almost measure up to this description as quoted from an article printed in an 1880 copy of Harper's (cribbed from a reprint in the December-January Westward Magazine):

"If there be or ever existed any real earthly paradise, I think it might be of some such complexion as the place called Sierra Madre. The air was heavy with the fragrance from extensive avenues of limes as we came up to it. The orange trees were propped to prevent their breaking under their weight of fruit. Forty oranges on a single bough, so close together as to touch—I have seen it with my own eyes.

"Turning around, a view of 30 miles was had across the garden of the San Gabriel Valley. A strip of blue sea closed the horizon. On the strip of blue sea rests a slight brown spot—one cannot fairly call it a jewel—which is Santa Catalina Island."

This is what encourages, most of us to stay here, despite smog-strangling days.

LADY'S LUCK. It's high time Mrs. John Fergus has a healthy turn of luck. Since November, she's been hospitalized three times, once for surgery (in November), and twice since as the result of automobile accidents. Total: seven weeks in Sierra Madre Hospital—(she should be a stockholder by now)—where she spent Thanksgiving Day, Christmas and New Year's.

Mrs. Fergus' first automobile accident was on Dec. 23, when the rear of her Simca was smacked while stopped for a red signal. She suffered shock and a brain concussion.

Ten days ago, Mrs. Fergus ended up with five broken ribs when their Hillman was hit by another car. Mr. Fergus (who was driving) was badly shaken up, and another Sierra Madre passenger, Esther Mitchell, bruised her legs.

FLIGHT FATIGUE. ....A mother reports she evesdropped on her young son and a friend as they were "flying" two homemade rockets in the back yard.

"Zoom, zoom-zoom!" said the son, "Now we're over London, Zoom! we're over Paris—zoom, zoom, zoom!"

This went on for several minutes—then suddenly, silence.

"What happened?" asked his friend in the other rocket, "Did we crash?"

"Naaah," sighed the first rocketeer, "I just got tired of saying 'Zoom.'"

We're Impatient To Get the News

George Romey, president of Nash Cars (American Motors), has announced that—"He will not be a candidate . . if drafted, he will not accept . . if nominated, he will not run." Well, that eliminates one more possible candidate for high office of President. If we could only hear from J. C. Higgins, Charlie Wilson and Henry Ford III, we'd get this presidential race narrowed down to strictly politicians.

Change Horses in the Middle of the Bus?

By Margaret Lee Tweedie

I like to ride the bus when I'm not harrassed or hurried. Last Tuesday was the perfect day for a serene, leisurely bus ride because the holiday harrassment was over and the hectic struggle of composing a term paper was assuaged as the paper passed from my hands to those of the teacher.

After class I walked to the corner bus stop. Standing there in the sunshine I was in a relaxed state of euphoria when the bus picked me up. Yes, there was a vacant seat.

* * *

IN PUBLIC PLACES do you indulge in speculating about the lives of the people about you? My penchant for playing Sherlock Holmes was rewarding and then disconcerting. As most of my fellow passengers were little old ladies, I was about to dismiss the lot as a group of doting grandmothers until bits of their conversations penetrated my make-believe world.

Then I was jolted. These little old ladies were devotees of the bangtails and they were on their way to an afternoon of parimutuel fun and frolic at Santa Anita.

Across the aisle were two elderly friends exchanging opinions about their choices in the fifth. Behind me two ladies were debating in fond terms about the talents of "Shoe"; whether Willie Shoemaker would replace Eddie Arcaro as the greatest living jockey dominated these ladies' conversation for blocks.

My seat mate scrutinized her copy of the racing form with the undivided attention of a scholar of the Dead Sea Scrolls; then she checked her choices with the assurance of an old pro.

* * *

THE SEAT in front of me was occupied by two more racing fans who were rejoicing in recounting their winnings of the previous day; yes, indeed, they assured each other, $30 for $2 in the second was the result of their shrewd analysis of the jockey, of the horse, and of the track.

Up forward six ladies were engaged in an animated exchange of information about the race tracks around the country. This coterie bandied about the names of Hialeah, Tanforan, The Fairgrounds, Saratoga, Jamaica, Belmont and Churchill Downs with the fervor that most women their age reserve for discussions of their aches, pains and operations.

My delight in listening to these elderly dolls was terminated as I reluctantly transferred to another bus.

* * *

ON THIS BUS I was the only passenger; my former delight turned into a dilemma. As an average middle-aged woman I had created an Auntie Mame-like personality for myself in my Walter Mitty dream world; no cookie baking and baby sitting grandmother role for me.

But the drab appearing old ladies who were vital and sparkling in their enthusiasm for playing the horses caused me to pause and ponder. Should one change horses in the middle of the bus?

Letter to The Editor

Dear Mr. Herwig:

I should like to comment on your remarks preceding Mrs. Weir's letter to the editor printed in last week's issue of the NEWS. (Douglas Weir is Mrs. F. Worley Weir.)

I am quite sure that she did not mean that she originated the term "The Squeak," but that she simply meant that she, along with the rest of the town, always referred to the paper by that term.

"The Squeak" has been the fond nickname for the paper for many, many years. I don't know its origin, since I have only lived here eight years and have never heard it discussed, but I suggest that you ask some of the old-timers about it.

Lee Shippey ought to know ,since he refers to the local newspaper by this term in his fictionalized story about Sierra Madre, The Town Where Nothing Ever Happens.

I think that all of us who used that term did so with pride and affection. I no longer call the Sierra Madre NEWS "The Squeak." I am waiting to see whether it will prove worthy of the honor, under its new management.

Sincerely yours,
HELEN S. HAWKINS

Life Mission Services At Shepherd of the Hills Get Under Way on Sunday

A "whale of an experience" awaits all who visit Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran Church, 33 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., Sierra Madre, during the New Life Mission. Informal services and a "singspiration" of favorite hymns will be offered at 8 p.m. on Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Feb. 21-24. The public is invited.

Guest missioner, the Rev. Frank H. Clutz of Phoenix, Ariz., is speaking on the Book of Jonah, which is more than the story of a man being swallowed alive by a big fish, and surviving to tell the tale.

Informal sharing sessions will follow the worship services.

The Sunday evening service, sponsored by the Luther League, will feature special music by the choir. The anthem will be "The Heavens Resound."

Monday evening's worship, sponsored by the Men of the Church, will find the choir offering "Now Let Us All Praise God and Sing." Women of the Church will sponsor Tuesday evening's service, when the choir will sing "Praise, Adoration Be to Our God." Final worship Wednesday evening will be sponsored by the choir. A violin solo, "O Divine Redeemer," by Gounod, will be played by Mrs. Donald L. Mueller, with Don Chambers at the organ.

REFRESHMENTS will be served immediately after worship on each of the four evenings. Preceding each worship, callers will go out and invite in all who have shown interest in the church.

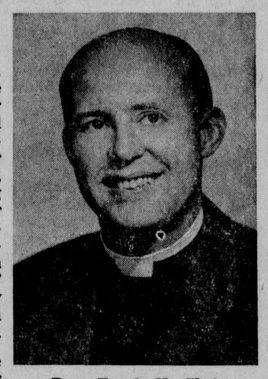

"This will be a tremendous spiritual experience for all to enjoy," said the Rev. Ray E. Hansen, pastor of Shepherd of the Hills. "We welcome all visitors without obligation."

Dr. Clutz has been pastor of Faith Evangelical Lutheran Church in Phoenix since 1948, guiding it from a small mission to a congregation of more than 2,000 members. He came to Phoenix from Philadelphia, where he served as pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church in Germantown from 1941. Before this he was pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Reformation in St. Paul, Minn., from 1932 to 1939.

A native of Kansas, he was graduated in 1928 with a bachelor of arts degree from Gettysburg College in Pennsylvania. He received his bachelor of divinity degree from Gettysburg Theological Seminary in 1931. Upon gradation he was the assistant pastor at Luther Place Memorial Lutheran Church in Washington, D.C., for 15 months before going to St. Paul.

AT PRESENT, Pastor Clutz is chairman of the committee on ministry to public institutions of the Arizona Council of Churches, a member of the board of the Arizona Boys' Ranch and chairman of the chapel building committee, and a member of the membership committee of the Phoenix Council of Churches. He is first vice president of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of the Pacific Southwest and a member of the Board of Higher Education of the United Lutheran Church in America.

Preceding the appearance of Dr. Clutz in the New Life Mission, the congregation will be briefed and instructed in the opportunities of reaching others by the Rev. George A. Spindt, pastor of St. Andrew's Lutheran Church of Van Nuys, Calif., whose congregation was the first to pilot test the New Life Mission in the West.

Rev. Frank H. Clutz

Pastor Spindt will address the congregation at the New Life Mission potluck dinner at 7 o'clock this Friday, Feb. 19, at the church. Sound color movies will be shown to the children who come to the dinner with their parents. The dinner is open to the public.

AT 10 A.M. SATURDAY, a brunch will be held at the church for all youths and the Sunday School staff. Pastor Spindt will brief the youths and send them out on census calls, then address the teachers on "Sunday School Evangelism." He will meet with "The 12" committee on evangelism at 2 p.m. Saturday at the church.

At 1:30 p.m. Sunday, all leaders of the congregation will be given the over-all picture on census calls by Pastor Spindt before going out, returning at 4 p.m. for a sharing session. Leaders of the Christian Circles of Friendship will be briefed on the zone care plan at 4:30 p.m.

Then the New Life Mission begins its four nightly services at 8 o'clock Sunday in the church, continuing at that same hour Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

Christian Science Subject Is 'Mind'

In the Sunday Lesson-Sermon in each Christian Science Church, God will be explained as the all-knowing, all-creating, all-wise, all-comprehending, all-loving, infinite mind. The subject is "Mind."

Paul writes in the Golden Text from Romans (12:2), "Be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God."

This text is in line with Paul's cogent admonition in another of his letters (Phil. 2:5), "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus."

When the League of Women Voters starts its fund drive next Tuesday with a Kick-Off Brunch, several Sierra Madre members will be attending to receive instructions on their part in the picture.

Mrs. Charles F. Robinson will assist the hostess, Mrs. Frederick C. Lindvall, with the coffee table arrangements. Mrs. William Pringle of Pasadena, finance chairman, will conduct the meeting, which she promises will be "streamlined."

Mrs. Skipper Rostker, 3426 Barhite Rd., is a member of the fiannce committee, along with her board post as local affairs chairman.

Other East Unit Board members who will be taking part in the finance drive are Mrs. Bertin Posthill, 56 Suffolk Ave., Sierra Madre; Mrs. C. M. Shafer, 1335 Hastings Ranch Dr.; Mrs. Richard Walters, 3825 Cartwright St., and Mrs. Thomas C. Thomas, 3635 Fairmeade Rd.

Mrs. Alfred T. Hartwell Jr., 1420 Rexford Dr., chairman of the 1960-61 budget committee, will also take an active part.

MORE THAN 50 members will be briefed at the morning meeting at the home of Mrs. Lindvall, 1224 Arden Rd., Pasadena. They will make a coordinated appeal to residents and business and professional men of the communities of Pasadena, South Pasadena, Sierra Madre, Temple City, Altadena and La Canada. Results will be reported one week later, Feb. 29.

Prime object of the League of Women Voters, a national organization, is "to promote political responsibility through informed and active participation of citizens in govenment."

This year the normally austere budget is being stretched to cover the costs of election-year services the public has come to expect of the League.

These include Voters Service booths in downtown locations, aid in voters registration, printed materials on the pros and cons of ballot measures and on voting records of incumbents, candidates meetings to promote two-way communication between voters and candidates, and many other services.

Mrs. E. C. Sloman Attends Wedding

Mrs. Evelyn C. Sloman of N. Mountain Trail enplaned last week for Camden, Mass., to attend the wedding of her granddaughter on Feb. 13.

Mrs. Sloman plans a month's holiday and will visit in New York and Philadelphia before returning to her home.

Sisters Presented At 'Sweetheart Ball'

Two Sierra Madre sisters, Anita Florence and Joclyn Lucile Tilley, daughters of the John J. Tilleys, were among the 11 debutantes presented to society last Friday at Los Angeles Athletic Club's fourth annual "Sweetheart Ball," a black tie affair. The Tilley home is at 130 Rancho Rd.

Joclyn, known by her friends as "Jackie," is a freshman at California Western University, Point Loma, San Diego.

Anita, junior at Anoakia School for Girls, is secretary-treasurer of the student body, cheer leader and vice president of the junior class. She is also active in the International Order of Job's Daughters. Both girls are active in sports and "Jackie" is very active in her school clubs.

THE TRADITIONAL Valentine theme prevailed throughout the ball with the debs attired in bouffant white full length ball gowns and carrying muffs fashioned from many brilliant red carnations and streamers of red satin ribbon.

As each girl's name was announced, she stepped through a large heart to be greeted by her parents, and her mother fastened a jeweled heart necklace around her neck, a symbol of her debutante role.

FOLLOWING the presentations the debs had the first waltz of the evening with their fathers before joining their escorts for the balance of the evening.

A large group of the Tilleys' relatives and friends joined with the girls for the evening.

The debutantes' escorts for the occasion were midshipmen from the Naval ROTC unit at University of Southern California.

Sierra Guild Installs New Officers

Installation of newly-elected officers was the highlight of the meeting when members of Sierra Guild of Los Angeles Children's Hospital convened yesterday at the home of Mrs. Raymond Rogers, 360 N. Baldwin Ave., Arcadia. Mrs. Gabriel Duque, the source of great inspiration for all volunteers at Children's Hospital, presided at the ceremonies.

Guild members also welcomed five new members, Mmes. Charles Coffyn, James Hedges, Hugh J. Scarborough, Robert G. Scherer and Charles Terry.

Plans for the guild's semi-annual fund-raising event, a "Spring Soiree" dinner dance to be held Saturday, March 19, in the Stuart Building loggia, were discussed by the committees under the direction of Mrs. Hugh J. Flemming.

Ticket sales for this evening of fine food, sociability and music for dancing, are gratifying to date, according to Mrs. Allan Jaynes, ticket and reservations chairman.

Luncheon was served following the meeting by Mrs. Rogers and her co-chairman, Mrs. E. L. Mohr.

Nan G. Petnick Opens New Studio In West Arcadia

Miss Nan G. Petnick, director of the studio of drama and speech, has moved to West Arcadia after having a studio in Pasadena for the past 11 years.

She also has opened a studio in Hollywood for the convenience of those in that area. She has been directing children's theater in San Gabriel Valley, Los Angeles and Hollywood for many years.

The Arcadia studio is planning its first spring production in May at Pasadena Playhouse. Rick Fessenden shared honors with Cherle Kloke in the last production of the Arcadia community play, "Happy Time."

Charlene Schenck Hosts Eight at Birthday Party

Judd and Doris Schneck were hosts to eight youngsters at their home, 1365 Riviera Dr., Hastings Ranch, in honor of their daughter Charlene's seventh birthday anniversary.

Attending and in addition to Charlene, and enjoying delightful refreshment and games, were Marjorie Campbell, Betty Bergholz, Cindy Lou Grube, Jean Wagner, Tonya Hippenheimer and Alan Schenck.

Play to Open Tomorrow Night

Intense rehearsals have been under way all this week in preparation of Arcadia Community Theatre's production, "Picnic," which will open tomorrow evening.

Special rates are available to groups taking blocks of tickets. Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Roger Verhage at ELgin 5-7603.

That's right, Lucy! The Falcon is a true six-passenger car with all the room you'd expect in a full-size Ford. Yet it slips through traffic that baffles the "big ones." The Falcon is a real budget-saver, too...the lowest-priced, six-passenger car built in America. It saves on gas and oil, maintenance and repairs, even on insurance. Maybe it won't fit into Snoopy's house. But it will fit into your car-buying budget without strain. Try one for size—the new-size Ford Falcon.

Church Will Honor Scout Units Sunday

Scouting Units sponsored by the church and the boys in Scouting will be shared by the Congregational Church this Sunday at the 11 o'clock service.

Boys from Troop 373 and Ship 391, both sponsored by the church, will attend in uniform. Scouts wil assist in the service and with the ushering.

Charters will be presented by Bill Thomas, district Scout executive, to Ronald Westerman, institutional representative for the church. Committee Chairman Terry Chambers, for the troop, and George Barrett, for the Ship, will in turn accept sponsorship of the church for the units which they represent.

Skipper Gordon F. Dierks, of Ship 391 and Scoutmaster Ernest Patterson, of Troop 373, will represent the boys of their respective units in the ceremony.

Card, Shuffle Board Club In New Home

The Parks and Recreation Department announces that members of the Card and Shuffle Board Club have just received a new home.

Last week the Parks crew moved an old abandoned shed which was located at the Water Department Yards to Memorial Park, in the vicinity of the Shuffle Board Courts. The building will serve as a shelter and storage space for the elderly gentlemen of the community.

Upon setting the building on its foundation, the members wasted little time with saws and hammmers in an attempt to make their new home comfortable. The building is equipped with lights and facilities for heating .

ALTHOUGH the building now serves the purpose, the department plans to remodel the exterior by means of replacing the present metal sheeting with wood siding.

Director Dave A. Sommers presented the members with chairs and a new card table, which event caused a complete halt of the Canasta game which was in progress.

The director says these gentlemen were most appreciative of recent happenings, and showed much hidden energy in preparing the building for their first card game.

Ezekiel Is Topic For Fortnighters

An opportunity to gain understanding of the Bible will be offered to all Sierra Madreans when the Fortnighters, adult study and discussion group, meets this Friday night. Fortnighters will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Edwards, 246 E. Montecito, at 8 p.m. this Friday, Feb. 19. All who are interested are invited.

Rabbi Charles W. Steckel, spiritual leader of the Temple, will deliver the benediction. Cantor Barnett Mitock will chant the prayers.

Achievement Award Now Nearing End

The search to find high school senior students who will be honored in this year's statewide Bank of America Achievement Awards program has nearly ended. Faculty committees from high schools throughout the state, including the Sierra Madre area, will report their candidates for the various awards within a few days.

Announcement of the local winners will be made about March 15.

For "outstanding scholarship, leadership and promise of future service to society" about 2,400 Southern California students will receive certificates of achievement; 800 will get gold trophies, and 252 who survive group oral interviews in competition with other schools will receive cash awards.

In Southern California there will be 12 awards of $1,000 each, and others ranging down to a large group of $25 awards.

Zone competitions with other schools will be held in April, and all first place winners in the zone events will go to the finals in May, where they will receive cash awards ranging from $100 to $1,000 each.

Cash awards for Southern California will total $32,100, and for the entire state, $64,200.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Little as I like the "calamity howler," it's possible he may be of some benefit. Perhaps he can keep some of our poor, rich misers shaking in their skins and prompt them to put some of their "ill-gotten" gains back into circulation, in hopes of purchasing their own temporary salvation!

However, I strongly believe that the power of suggestion is a potent element in the mental world; and that words suggestive of destruction, oft repeated, could lead to sinister results. Now, we seem to have in our midst many of these pessimistic cynics who can't see the doughnut—only the hole!

Seems they abound mostly among our broadcasting commentators, some in our government; and in many places where they exert a wide influence. At the same time, however, I also believe that a newly awakened-and-aware populace is not as easily influenced now as they have been in the past.

But I still think we should do our best to quiet or at least, discourage, the continuous outcries of our "Calamity Boys."

I think we should do all we can to promote constructive thought, and, if there must be criticism, let it also be constructive.

Let's get off the toboggan to perdition and destruction before it's too late. Let's all think in terms of good (not evil) and work to that end.

So far, evidence shows that good has always triumphed over evil—there is no reason why it should not continue to do so.

So, please calm down, "Calamity Boys" — please calm down!

Let us each think well of our neighbor. He may be closer to God than we are.

I'll wind it up with this thought — I like Lee Shippey's column, and am glad that he is going to continue with you.

RUSS TREE.

...and this couple is moving into a new home, just three years after they began saving for the down-payment at Bank of America.

Saving at B of A brought them more than money, too! It brought the convenience of 59 banking services, covering every need from trust funds to financing, checking accounts to money orders. And it brought the satisfaction of knowing their funds were absolutely safe, instantly available.

You, too, could have been enjoying these advantages for the last three years — if you'd opened a B of A savings account back in February, 1960.

Tenth Drug King Self Serve-Rexall Store Opens In Hastings Ranch Center

An exciting value-packed, four-day Grand Opening Celebration gets under way at the new and tenth Drug King Self Serv-Rexall store in Hastings Shopping Center, Rosemead and Foothill Blvds., at 9 o'clock Thursday morning, Feb. 18. Announcement was made by Edward W. Bauer, manager of the new store in the rapidly growing Drug King-Rexall chain.

"Several months of planning have gone into our grand opening," Bauer said, "with our buyers accumulating a tremendous variety of outstanding values. The result will be spectacular savings in every department of the store."

Mgr. Edward W. Bauer

In addition to super-savings, the 11-foot Drug King giant will be on hand to give a colorful Drug King crown to all children attending the grand opening. As an added feature of the grand opening celebration, all youngsters accompanied to the store by an adult will have an opportunity to enter a contest for a gasoline-powered midget racer. The winner of the car will be selected in a drawing held at 3 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 21.

BECAUSE the Hastings Shopping Center is built on gently sloping land, the new Drug King store occupies a unique location facing the upper level parking lot and immediately adjacent to the A&P Market. The store can be reached most directly by using the upper level parking lot, entering off Rosemead Blvd. Customers parking in the lower level lot, on the Foothill Blvd. side, can easily reach the second level by escalator, disembarking right at the entrance to Drug King.

The best way to describe the Drug King chain is "Self Service and Value." The new store is so arranged as to appeal to both the hurried and casual shopper. The tremendous assortment of merchandise allows for quick selection, and ample stocks are always available. More than 30,000 items are offered at the new Drug King store, and at the lowest prices to be found anywhere.

"Our location of department, low construction of counters and displays, color scheme and lighting and air conditioning have all been scientificaly engineered with maximum customer service and convenience in mind," Bauer explained. "Approximately 11,000 square feet of space is devoted to the finest merchandise of its kind in easily identified department sections."

THE NEW STORE boasts such features as automatic opening and closing doors, ultra-modern lighting and air conditioning. The entire building is completely fireproofed for added safety.

The pharmacy in the new Pasadena Drug King-Rexall Store is conveniently located near the store's entrance, and is housed in a handsomely designed Grecian Temple-like setting.

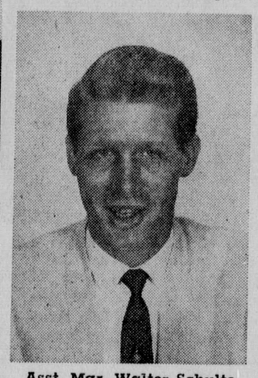

Decorated in hospital white and gleaming chrome, the pharmacy stocks well over $10,000 worth of drugs and pharmaceuticals which are tested not only by the manufacturers, but most also meet rigid standards of quality set by the Drug King-Rexall testing and research laboratories.

Drug King will offer the most complete pharmacy in the area, supervised by a highly skilled staff of carefully selected licensed pharmacists, including Leslie G. Evans, a graduate of the University of Wisconsin;; Richard A. Gates, a University of Washington graduate; T. L. Fischer, a University of Missouri graduate, and Carl R. Wallace, who was graduated from the University of Indiana.

As an added convenience to its customers, the new Drug King-Rexall store offers free delivery on all prescriptions. It was further emphasized that an accurate record is kept of all prescriptions filled at the pharmacy, and can easily be refilled by either the customer or the customer's doctor phoning the prescription department. The telephone numbers are ELgin 5-8016 and MUrray 1-9278.

"RESIDENTS in the area will find the new Drug King-Rexall store a complete shopping center within a shopping center," Bauer said, "offering literally thousands of items not normally associated with a drug store. More important, however, is the fact that these items are on sale at the lowest prices to be found anywhere."

A large baby department carries not only complete medical needs for baby, but also a broad assortment of baby clothing, gift items and toys. Men will be happy browsing in the hardware and automobile supply department, while youngsters will have a field day in the toy and hobby section at Drug King.

Asst. Mgr. Walter Schulte

Ladies will find the new Drug King Self Serv stocked with all of their favorite nationally-advertised cosmetics and perfumes, including Rexall's famous Cara Nome products, as well as excellent values in jewelry, hosiery and hair accessories. Specially trained cosmeticians, with years of experience in catering to women's needs, will always be on duty in the beautifully designed cosmetic sectionof the store.

CERTAIN to be a popular section of the new Drug King-Rexall store is the large camera and photo supply department. This will be one of the largest departments in the store, providing all the latest in photographic supplies and equipment, as well as information on their use. Drug King customers will be offered the fastest possible photo developing and finishing service, as well as a convenient layaway plan for purchasing more expensive items.

Shoppers at the new store are guaranteed ample parking. In drawing up plans for the Hastings Shopping Center, architects set aside an area far in excess of normal for parking, thus assuring customers of all stores ample parking space at all times.

Manager Bauer, who joined Rexall five years ago, heads up a staff that is among the most experienced in the entire Rexall chain. Walter Schulte, assistant manager, has been with Rexall for 10 years, and Ruth Stewart and Irene Pariseau, cosmeticians, have been with the chain 15 years and 10 years, respectively.

The pharmacists are Rexall veterans in every sense of the word. Evans has been wtih the firm for 38 years; Gates, 23 years; Fischer, 30 years, and Wallace has been a Rexall pharmacist for 18 years.

EXTENDING a warm invitation to everyone in the area to attend the grand opening, Manager Bauer promised spectacular values in all departments.

"Our grand opening is a wonderful opportunity for all our customers to save many, many dollars on evvry conceivable type of drug store merchandise," Bauer said. "Throughoout the four-day grand opening period, Drug King customers will be treated to an amazing array of values."

Derby Colts In $50,000 San Felipe

Saturday's $50,000-added San Felipe Handicap at 1-1/16 miles will be a vitally important test at the Arcadia track for the 23rd running of the "Hundred Grand" Santa Anita Derby on March 5, the "Triple Crown" and other classics to follow later in the season for the three-year-olds. This follows Wednesday's $20,000 Santa Susana Stakes at 1-1/16 miles for fillies.

The lineup for The San Felipe is the most outstanding in its history, dating back to 1935. California presents a particularly strong and brilliant challenge this year in T. V. Lark, Noble Noor, New Policy, Eagle Admiral, Flow Line, Bright Tiny, Clown Prince and Prince Scorpion, among others.

John William and Natego top strong Eastern opposition and C. T. Chenery's imported Howard G. may pop up to add international luster to the race which has attracted 18 nominations.

His name is Gordon Vincent Baney, a bouncing seven pounds and 11 ounces, born on Saturday, Feb. 13, at Arcadia Methodist Hospital.

Gordon, his mother, and Pappy Baney are all doing "quite well, thank you."

At Long Beach Breakwater Big Bull Bass on Prowl

By Al Miyadi

Biggest bull bass in many moons on the prowl along the Long Beach Federal breakwater. Witching hour is 6 p.m. Hula skirts best enticers, but fishing is tricky, requires small boat know-how.

Pierpoint employe Bill Nott checked in the other dusk with a 9-5 golden calico. For spinners only, says Nott. Boyish Al T. M. and up-and-coming Lupi Saldana taking on Old Pros Nott and McClintock at a buck a throw next week. Will give you a dollar-by-dollar account week after.

DOWN WITH SUCCESS

Outdoor Scribe George Ramsey (Spinfishing & Sportfishing News) argues against success in latest issue, says fast-retrieving jig-slingers (who catch the most fish, he admits) ought to slow down, that they might be missing a bet with slower-moving fish. I'm confused. Why ain't La success?

LOCAL WATERFRONT

Pacific and Pierpoint (Long Beach) both working two-for-the-price-of-one caper, deny price war. But spring is almost with us.

Commercials reportedly took bluefin tuna off Catalina Island last fortnight, but nothing since.

Bonito schooling thick off Rocky Point and the Horseshoe, but no one's getting very sexy about it. Yet almost everybody rates bonehead at the head of the belligerence class.

Santa Monica on the verge of resuming surface fishing operations, decision hinges on success of exploratory run of boat Pegasus. On the search between Ballona Creek and the Long Wharf. Bottom runner doing fair on rock cod and small white sea bass.

ELSEWHERE

San Diego runners still on a restricted sked, blanked on yellows Saturday. Bottom fishing boats, though, taking limits almost daily. Still the best bet for barracuda.

Totuava apparently in full swing at Puertocito (four to five hours below San Felipe) lunkers to 150 lbs. Road, however, primitive, advise jeeps and pick-ups only. Motels? Are you kidding?

Salton Sea is still going strong on corvina, mostly 6-lbers. ,taking mudsuckers. Limit is six, you know. Light tackle okay though most use heavy stuff. Shore fishing slow, requires know-how and patience. Chamber of Commerce there will supply maps of most productive fishing areas on request. Corvina, incidentally, are rated as top table fare by meat anglers.

HASTINGS RANCH NEWS

UP ON . . . Hastings Hill

Hastings Ranch Dance Clubbers will hold their anniversary dinner dance Saturday night at Eaton's, marking the sixth year since these Ranch couples had their first practice session to keep from forgetting the steps learned in a series of dance lessons they had taken together.

Dottie and Vince Bush, Doris and Russ Pooler, Tom and Marge Bickler and Jack and Belle Partch, steering committee for 1959, have charge of this party, and will turn the reigns of the club over to the new quartet of couples Saturday night. These are Bud and Jane Howell, Don and Jayne Schleuter, Joan and Ogden Boden and Jack and Penny Wills.

Incidentally, the Howells have been in New York all week and probably will get home just in time to change clothes for the party. Another club couple planning a trip are Helmut and Perliet Vorster, who are mapping a European tour for this summer.

* * *

MONDAY was moving day for Bob and Virginia Buttcane and eighth-grade daughter, Karen, who have a new home in Palm Springs. Friends of Karen surprised her with a party Friday night after Dewald's dancing class. Susan Hurtig and Barbara Shanks were hostesses at the latter's home for a score of classmates.

* * *

B. J. AND TED Donald and and their daughters, Joan and Sue, have the welcome mat out for his brother, Dr. William G. Donald Jr., of Berkeley, who is arriving sometime today with his wife and daughters, Kathie, Linda, Nancy and Patty, for a long weekend of visiting. Looks as though these Donald men are going to be outnumbered, two to eight, by the Donald ladies.

THE RANCH will be represented at Squaw Valley this week by Pat and John Norris and Ann and Bob Stanaway. The Norisses will spend the whole ten days of the Olympic Games in the holiday home of his brother, Carter Norris Jr., of Scottsdale, Ariz. Sounds as though it will be lots of fun since here will be four couples in the party and the home overlooks some of the slopes where the games will take place. The Stanaways will not be there the entire time but at least they'll have several days of the fun and excitement that goes with the games.

Imogene Coca, now on stage at the Pasadena Playhouse in a two-character comedy, "The Fourposter," co-stars with King Donovan in the three-act duologue depicting the familiar fun, farce, and frustration of lasting love and marriage.

Troop 383 Has Annual Dinner

Robert Freinkel, scribe for Boy Scout Troop 383 at Don Benito School, reports the troop held its second annual Father and Son Dinner at Eldorado Restaurant.

William H. Morse, past president of San Gabriel Council, discussed the duties of an Eagle Scout. Guest speaker for the evening was Sgt. Bob Speight of Pasadena Police Department. Honored guest was William Jeffs of Pasadena Fire Department.

At the court of honor, Robert Willis received a life award; Robert Freinkel, Peter Joyce and Tim Paxson, star; Ed Blackman, David Harris, Garry Wood, Greg Tobias and Robert Meason, first class; and Eric Joyce, second class. Twenty-one merit badges also were awarded.

The scoutmaster's cup was awarded to Buffalo Patrol for amassing the largest number of points.

Sierra-Hastings Camp Fire Log

Blue Birds and Camp Fire Girls of the Sierra-Hastings district are busy with invitations, party favors and decorations for their annual father-daughter dinners scheduled for Feb. 26 and March 4.

Blue Birds will take their fathers to dinner at 6:30 p.m. Feb. 26 at Don Benito School, with each group of girls responsible for all preparations, including entertainment. A patriotic holidays theme will be employed.

With George Washington's birthday anniversary approaching one can't help but think of the heritage of freedom he bequeathed us. Men have fought and died for it and will probably continue till we blow ourselves to destruction.

The Bible says the world will be destroyed by fire. I have often wondered if that meant gunfire or atomic fire.

I find it impossible to comprehend how wars can be started. There are few among us who would not lay down his life for our country, but how can a leader have the courage or nerve to volunteer those lives in a deliberate incitation of war? I feel grateful every day knowing I live in a country that has never declared war on another .And for all this we can go back and thank the great men of George Washington's time.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA Edison COMPANY

Magazine Article Details How 'Bob' Leonard Makes Small Plant Successful

The old saying that from a little acorn a giant oak will grow seems to be in the making for R. M. "Bob" Leonard of 229 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., organizer and owner of the Sierra Madre Swiss Mfg. Co., at 140 E. Montecito.

"Bob" started his manufacture of Bechler screw machines some four years ago at his home—aided, of course, by the wholehearted support and efforts of his industrious wife. As time went on the increased business was such that he had to tranfer operations to its present address.

The February issue of Automatic Machining, published in Rochester, N.Y., has an interesting article with photos and sketches entitled "Generating on the Swiss Automatic," dealing with "Bob" Lenard's manufacture, indicating quite clearly the expertness of his manufacturing know-how and industry.

The article is technical, but its introduction, which follows, is enlightening:

"SIERRA Swiss Mfg. Co., a one-man shop in the shadows of the Sierra Madre Mountains of California, is operated by R. M. "Bob" Leonard, whose knowledge of Bechter screw machines is outdone only by his willingness to use them for an occasional invasion of "Brownie' 'country.

"In this article he spells out in detail how the connecting rod, Figure I, was produced for two West Coast model plane engine manufacturers on a Bechler in a manner not generally used."

The article covers more than five magazine pages.

Business Area Solicitors Appointed for City's Red Cross Campaign

An interview with C. W. Jones, Sierra Madre's first mayor, and for 45 years an officer in the Red Cross, plus appointment of Business Section solicitors, marked the latest phase of the unit's fund campaign in March.

Coincidental with the Red Cross campaign throughout this area, the Sierra Madre Chapter's quota is $7,427, according to Col. Charles E. Morrison, fund chairman. This is slightly lower than last year's figure of $7,710.

The Business Section solicitors will be Tom Schwartz, Carl Hansen, Mrs. Nora Eaton, Postmaster Charles Louk, Stirling Ripple and John McKibbon. Solicitors for the other groups will be announced soon. Each of the area captains will need six or seven workers.

RECALLING the early days of the Red Cross activities here, Mr. Jones said that its charter was received from the Red Cross Washington Headquarters in 1915, only Pasadena and Berkeley having older charters in California.

During World War I, a trophy was presented by National Headquarters to the Sierra Madre Chapter for the largest increase per capita in membership.

The Sierra Madre Chapter was also cited for having made more progress to date than any other unit in the United States. This program included production of bandages and other necessary materials for hospitals.

For more than seven years during the 1930's depesrsion, Washington granted the Sierra Madre Chapter a certain dispensiation to include all local relief in its activities.

"BETWEEN $7,000 and $8,000 was raised each year in this city," Mr. Jones recalled. "Everyone who could afford it was asked to give a dollar. This was per individual—not per family. It is a pity that the custom of giving one dollar is carried out today because we all know that the dollar in the 30's was worth three of today's dollars.

"Red Cross expenses also have tripled. If a recipient of a loan could not repay it during the depression he was not required to. At various times from 50 to 75 families were given all their food and much clothing."

Expected VD Eradication Fails to Materialize and Problem Remains Critical

By Roy O. Gilbert, M.D.
Los Angeles County Health Officer

Expectations that were generally held a few years ago regarding eradication of the venereal diseases have failed to materialize. Indeed, the rapid treatment routines and so-called wonder drugs have not only failed to provide the hoped for shortcuts to control but in some ways have acted as deterrents.

The control of the two major veneral diseases, namely syphilis and gonorrhea—there are three others but they account for only about one-half to 1 per cent of the total number of cases—has been more successful in Los Angeles County than in the state as a whole. Control is also considerably better here than in the nation generally.

Statistics reveal that venereal disease rates in Los Angeles County decreased during the past five years, but, notwithstanding, gonorrhea and syphilis currently remain the most serious health problems among all the communicable diseases reported in this area.

THERE IS also some question as to whether there has been a true reduction in the case rate, or at least, whether the decrease is anywhere near what it might seem to be on basis of available statistics.

Reporting of venereal diseases, both here and elsewhere, is known to represent a somewhat incomplete picture of the actual incidence of both syphilis and gonorrhea.

Gonorrhea ranked second among the communicable diseases reported in Los Angeles County during 1959, with 8,504 cases reported, while syphilis placed fourth with 3,196 cases. Moreover, had it not been for a measles epidemic in 1959, which raised the number of cases of this childhood disease considerably above the previous year, gonorrhea would have been the number one communicable disease reported in this area.

The heavy influx of new residents from sections of the country with less effective control programs also accounts for many new VD cases being transmitted in Los Angeles County and multiplies the difficulties of both case finding and contact tracing, as many of these individuals move from place to place and cannot be easily located.

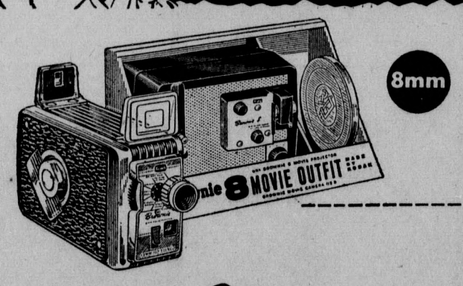

IT IS TO be remembered also, that epidemiologists estimate that there are usually five unreported cases of gonorrhea for each one reported and three unreported for each known syphilis case. There is also some reason to believe that these unreported cases may have increased in recent years.

It is a significant fact that the actual reported rates have more than doubled since about 1949, at least among teenagers. As a matter of fact, the American Social Hygiene Association estimates that at least 200,000 teenagers in the United States will contract a venereal disease within the next year.

After the advent of penicillin in 1943, and more particularly after the long-acting penicillin came into use which made the treatment of venereal disease both rapid and comparatively inexpensive, lay and professional concern over venereal disease control tended to relax, and widespread educational efforts relating to syphilis and gonorrhea all but came to a halt.

THE INCREASING spread of the venereal diseases simply shows that the treatment of a disease, no matter how effective, is never a replacement or substitute for preventive measures.

New Rocket Snapdragons Win 1960 All-U.S. Award

If snapdragons are your dish, the new year holds something special in store for you. That's the word from local members of the California Association of Nurserymen, who are high on the new Rocket Series of snapdragons.

The Rockets are winners of a 1960 All-America award, and with good reason. They are tall, like Maximum snaps, bearing beautiful spikes of bloom in a good mixture of color: bronze, lavender, red, yellow, rose and white. And best of all, they show good tolerance for heat, making them one of the best snaps for summer bloom in warmest parts of the state.

There's good news for marigold lovers, too, in the form of a new All-America dwarf that goes by the name of Spun Gold. Its blooms are large for a dwarf and heavily massed on compact plants that run about 12 inches high. The flowers are chrysanthemum type, a rich golden yellow in color and its big asset aside from looks is the fact that it blooms earlier than most African marigolds. Look for it later this month or early next when the weatherman gives nurserymen the go-ahead.

THERE'S A new marigold in the Climax series this year, also, but seed is still scarce so you may or may not find it. This one is Toreador, another AA winner, and it boasts large orange bloom on medium tall plants. If Toreador is not available, look for other members of the new Climax series.

As so often seems the case, the petunia family offers good new varieties for California gardens this year. The novelty petunia Mercury is sure to be a favorite, a heavenly blue. Others are Sugar Plum, a bright orchid pink petunia, penciled in its center with rich, purple hues; Neptune, a medium violet blue, and Satellite, a bright rose-colored petunia with a perfect white star.
